Announcement of the 2023 Nobel Peace Prize

*The committee has decided to award the 2023 Nobel Peace Prize to Narges Mohammadi for her fight against the oppression of women in Iran and her struggle to promote human rights and freedom for all. Her courageous struggle has had enormous personal costs. In total, the regime has arrested her 13 times, imprisoned her five times and sentenced her to a total of 31 years in prison and 154 lashes. Mohammadi is still in prison today. This year's Peace Prize also recognises the hundreds of thousands of people who, last year, demonstrated against the theocratic regime's policies of discrimination and oppression against women.
